

BUY BOGOTÁ: GRAFITICITY

Bogotá is the heart of Latin American street art.

This bilingual book compiles 158 works of its creativity of urgency, the fear and fury of a developed continent in development, of a nation at war, of mountains of violence and coffee, forests of vallenato and coca, villages of theater and corruption, individualism and hospitality, museums and criminal gangs, shrimps and frying, choking pollution and downpours, multimillionaires and multimiserables, of a land of magic and tragic realism.

Love and hate in spray strokes.
