

:18 Ethical evolution of the humanitarian idea

:18 Evolución ética de la idea humanitaria

OUT OF STOCK – OUT OF STOCK

Introduction:

The Dangerous Piety

Part I:

Untying the Moral Knot

From the Catacombs to the UN

The Ethical Dichotomy

Part II:

Modern Humanitarian Phylogeny

Humanitarian Intervention vs. Humanitarian Non-Intervention

Contranatural Humanitarianism

Metaphysical Intervention

Charitable Intervention

Bilingual edition English/Spanish of this challenging essay, where Jordi Raich analyses the ethical evolution that propelled humanitarianism to the top of the international scene and its star remedy: the humanitarian intervention.

He reviews its versions and outcomes: Why taking the side of the victims is a way of taking no sides? Are the provision of relief and the defense of human rights compatible? Is humanitarian intervention the last refuge of humanism? What is more humanitarian to eliminate evil or to do good?

State & Military Humanitarian Intervention

Part III:

The Broken Humanitarian Compass

What is Humanitarian Intervention?

The Sentimental Alienation

The Seductiveness of Innocence

Conclusion:

Humanitarian Immorality

Bibliography

Notes

MSF

Cuadernos para el debate

:18 Ethical evolution of the humanitarian idea

:18 Evolución ética
de la idea humanitaria

Jordi Raich

HOME BOOKS ARTICLES PROJECTS IMAGES BIOGRAPHY